Meet @ Marden's at 12:00 p.m., depart at 12:15 p.m.

Come along with Debbie for another fabulous show at the Public Theater in Lewiston! We meet our coach at Marden's and depart promptly at 12:15 p.m. for a matinee showing of Moonlight and Magnolias, a show billed as follows:

Legendary movie producer David O. Selznick is unhappy. The filming of "Gone with the Wind" is going down the drain and a new script and director must be found in five days! Locking himself in a room with screenwriter Ben Hecht, director Victor Fleming, and an unlimited supply of peanuts and bananas, the three most talented men in Hollywood set out to create the perfect screenplay for the greatest movie ever made. You'll go nuts for this fun, farcical, behind-the-scenes look at the birth of one of the most beloved films of all time. "Frankly, my dear, this is one funny play."

After the show, we will stop at the Cracker Barrel Restaurant and Old Country Store in Portland for dinner on your own.
